Divine Mercy Sunday

Today is The Feast of Divine Mercy, or better known as Divine Mercy Sunday. On February 22, 1931, a young Polish nun, Sister Faustina, saw a vision of Jesus with rays of mercy streaming from the area of His heart. Christ told her to have an image painted to represent this vision and to sign it, "Jesus, I trust in You." In a series of revelations, Christ taught her that His mercy is unlimited and available even to the greatest sinners, and he revealed special ways for people to respond to his mercy.

Vocations weekend

A vocations weekend takes place at the Cathedral from 13th to 15th April. If you, or anyone you know, thinks God is calling you/them to the priesthood, come and explore the possibilities - no commitment. Contact Fr Mark or Fr Andy via the Vocations sub-section here.

Diocesan Marriage Celebration

The Diocesan Marriage Celebration will be held on 14th April at 12 noon in Holy Family, Langley, Slough. It had to be rescheduled from 3rd March because of the snow. The Mass is followed by reception in the Parish Centre.
